

International Student Agreement

Please be advised that by registering at UIC as international student you agree to the following:

When I receive the Application Documents from UIC

- I understand that I must read and confirm that all the information including names, addresses and dates in the sponsorship letter, my I-20 and I-539 forms is correct
- If I have applied for a Change of Status, I understand that I am responsible for extending my current status (B1/B2, H1B, etc.) until my student visa is approved.
- Application for admission is not refundable

When the decision is made

- When the Student Visa is approved, the processing fee will apply towards tuition.
- In the event that my petition is denied, I understand that UIC won't refund the processing fee.

When I abandon the case

- If I abandon the case before or after a decision is made, I understand that UIC will not refund the 100% of the processing fee.

When you become a UIC International Student

- I agree to follow the student rules and regulations stated in the School Catalog
- Attendance is mandatory, only medical or legal excuses are accepted
- Students cannot arrive to school late
- Students cannot leave school before the end of classes
- If I miss more than 20% of the term, I will fail the class and will have to repeat the term/subject
- I understand that if I decide to withdraw from the institution before six months of study, the processing fee won't be refundable.
- It is student's responsibility to be familiar with the information on the I-20 at all times, including its expiration date.
- I understand that if I do not comply with all of the above my I-20 will be terminated
